OceanWorks International “Mugged” by Local Radio Station “Rock 101”

Burnaby, British Columbia – The cast of Vancouver’s most popular morning show “Willy in the morning” paid a visit to OceanWorks International recently. Twice a week Willy invades a local office armed with coffee and cookies & donuts for “Get Mugged”, and OceanWorks was the lucky recipient of Willy, Kim and Alece’s visit this past Tuesday as they responded to the phone-in request from OceanWorks Jess Hodges.

Willy, the popular morning show host, was treated to a tour of the OceanWorks Burnaby facility while an entourage of OceanWorks employees enjoyed coffee and donuts. He was particularly taken by the ADS (Atmospheric Diving System) designed by OceanWorks to Lloyds Classification with a depth rating of 1200ft. He asked several informed questions on the capabilities and long successful operating history of the ADS indicating a familiarity with the Industry.
